

Colours for Rett

October is Rett Syndrome Awareness Month

Rett syndrome is a neurological disorder affecting mainly girls with profound and multiple physical and communication disabilities

Those with Rett Syndrome are totally reliant on others throughout their lives

During October, wear something purple and/or green rather than your uniform & donate a minimum of £1 to help give a non-verbal child the gift of communication. A two day training event for families costs £1500

Support Rett Syndrome Awareness Month
www.rettuk.org/octoberawareness